

Non Pro / Youth Lease FAQ

rev 11/2015

Who can lease a horse for NRHA competition?

- Non Pro and Youth members are eligible to lease a horse for showing purposes.

If I lease a horse with NRHA, can I show that horse in any class?

- No. You cannot show in Category 2 and 6 classes.

Do I have to send in the horse's original competition license?

- Yes, the lease form, lease fee and the original competition license must be turned in to the NRHA office. After the lease is processed, a lease certificate will be mailed to you. The certificate will be required as proof of the lease when entering NRHA events.

How much is an NRHA lease?

- $100 for the initial lease, and then $20 for each renewal.

Is there a limit on how many times I can lease a horse?

- No, you can lease unlimited times with the NRHA, but all leases do expire on December 31st of each year.

If I void my lease before December 31st, can someone else lease that horse for the remainder of the year?

- No, only one lease per year is allowed for each horse.

Can I turn in my lease form at the show?

- No, all leases must be received by the NRHA office with the original competition license and fee for processing prior to competing. Please allow time for processing and return mailing.

If I lease my horse, can my trainer still show it?

- Yes, a Professional can compete on the leased horse in any category.

I have already turned in a lease with AQHA, do I have to complete a lease form with NRHA?

- Yes, the NRHA lease form is required for NRHA competition and must be on file. An AQHA lease does not fulfill this requirement for NRHA competition, and vice versa.

I am a lessee and want to purchase the horse I've been leasing. How do I transfer it into my name?

- Contact the Member Services Department for instructions and a form to complete the transfer.

After the lease expires on December 31st, how does the original owner (lessor) receive a competition license for the horse that was previously leased?

- Contact the Member Services Department for instructions. NRHA membership must be current before the competition license will be issued.
